

We aim to support girls's and women's organisations in the field of sport development for social change. With our capacity building efforts, organisations can utilize best practices to create an impactful advocacy campaign for international girls' and women's empowerment.

PROGRAM DESIGN

- Gender-sensitive program development
- Impact oriented program development
- Improved project management skills for efficient teamwork and stable governance

Gender equality is one of the Global Sustainable Development Goals and a crucial driver for reduced poverty and inequalities

IMPACT ASSESSMENT

- Evaluate the impact of projects effectively
- Create structured approaches to goals, indicators and measurement tools
- Critical reflection on what is needed to develop and improve programming
- Exchange tools for data collection and analysis, and communication of best-practices within organisations
