

GIRLS IN THE LEAD | LOGIC MODEL

Organization name:

Project name:

Date:

Problem statement: Why this program is needed.

Program Goals: Aims of the program

Inputs

Target Population: What # or % of your target population are you trying to reach?

Resources/Inputs: What organizational and outside resources & staff are needed to complete this program?

Activities

Program Related: What activities are required in order to see results in your target population?

Administration and Monitoring & Evaluation: What activities are required by the organization to implement this program, monitor results, and evaluate outcomes?

Outputs

Measurable: Amounts that prove your activities were completed. E.i (# of people trained, # surveys completed, etc.)

Short-term Outcomes

Knowledge, Beliefs, Attitudes, Skills: What short-term change do you expect to see in the target population?

Mid-term Outcomes

Behavior: What behavior change do you expect to see in the target population?

Long-term Outcomes

Status/Condition: What long-term change do you expect to see in the target population/ community?

Assumptions: What are you assuming about the efficacy of your program with your target population?

External Factors: What do you expect to be true of the organizational or community context that has bearing on this program?